- Meeting notes from the November and December meeting are posted on the SMP website. Meeting minutes were approved at this meeting.

President's Report

Carol Olszewski

- Details for applying for scholarships will be out soon. They are managed through the counseling office. Volunteers hours are a portion of the scoring of those applications. Parent hours do also contribute. Students log hours through google classroom document. Parents hours are logged on website. Students need 10 hours per year for any leadership position and for eligibility for scholarships.
- We are looking for volunteers to help with the March Jazz Fest Fundraiser. This is going to be on 3/8/23 from 7:00-9:30pm. We need assistance with finishing to put raffle baskets together. If you are interested in helping please contact Carol Olszewski or Christa Bomeli.
- Band Camp will will Sunday 7/23/23- Friday 7/28/23. We will be going to Mount Union College. Information hopefully will be sent out in the next month or so for families to begin planning. Cost will be in this packet.
- We also need help with the nominating committee from all music groups. Lori Toth will chair the committee so reach out to her if interested in being a part of that.
- Scholarship committee needs about 2-3 volunteers. If interested let Jody Halley know.
- The Queen of hearts drawing at the Rollhouse is now supporting SMP. Thursday are the drawing.

Vice President of Purchasing

Leslie Perlberg and Debra Brandt

- Concessions for spring sports will start soon. Smaller scale than football. There is a large Track invitational in May that we will need volunteers for.

Vice President of Communication

Beth Roseman
